DR. MARSHALL'S CATARRH SNUFF

INVIGORATING C ORDIAL.—Professor
MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR or CORDIAL.—
The EIGHTH WONDER of the BOTANIC WORLD—
The invigorating Elixir and Cordial introduced into medical practice by the great chemist, physician and traveler. Dr. M. Morse, has for its basis an oriental herb, first brought from the stony deserts of Arabia Petres by that eminent philosopher. The natives of that region are remarkable for their longevity, exemption from sickness and power of sustaining fatigue, all of which they attribute in a great degree to the use of the herb or plant referred to, which they miversally chew, and sometimes smoke. On his return to Europe, after a long residence in the East, Professor Morse commenced experimenting with this wonderful natural production, and the result of his labors is the Invisorating Elixir, which has been indorsed by the Medical Colleges of all the great cities of Europe as the best preparation extant for life.

No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the diseased, de hilitated and shattered nervous system. Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once re-braced, re-vivified, and built up. The mental and physical systems the unstrung and relaxed organization and debility, becomes a new man. He stands creet, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom, of an aimost iduotic apathy, becomes bright, buoyant and active: and he goes forth refreshed, regenerated, and conscious of new vigor, to his accustomed occupations. Nor is the effect temperary. Out he contrary, the relate is permanent, for the cordial properties of the medicine reach the constitution itself and restore it to: is normal condition. Well may the preparation be called the MEDICINAL WONDER.

of the nineteenth century. It is, as the first scientific men in the old world have admitted, that miracle of medicine reach the constitution itself and restore it to is normal INVIGORATING CORDIAL.—Professor fluence upon the nerves, the mind, and the entire organization.

It is the only infallible remedy yet discovered for Nervous, Head and Mind Complaints; it is the mental physic, long sought for, and never before found—the only natural agent that can "administer to a mind discased." In cases of Neurelija, Headache, Vertigo, Pain in the Nerves of the Face, and the various trains of Nervous Affections, it will preduce a cure in an astonishing short period of time; and it will also remove Depression, Excitament, a Tendency to Blush, Restlessness, Sleeplessness, Dislike of Society, Incapacity for Study or Business, Loss of Memory, Confusion, Giddiness, Blood to the Head, Melancholy, Mental Deblity, Hysteria, Indecision, Wetchedness, Thoughts of Self-Destruction, Fear of Insanty, &c. It will increase and restore the appetite, strengthen the emachated, renew the health of those who have destroyed it, induce continual cheerfulness and equaminity of spirits, and prolong life.

The unparalleled effects of this great restorative in all complaints incident to females mark a new ers in the annals of medicine. Thousands of stimulants have been invented—thousands of invigorants concocted—all purporting to be specified in the various diseases and derangements to which the delicate conformation of woman render her liable. The result has bereatione been uniform. These mostrums have indeed imparted a momentary vixacity to the nervous system, a transient and delawive vizor to the muscles; but this flash of rethef has been succeeded by a depression and prostration greater than before, and the end has too often been utterly to paralyze the recuperative power of the nerves and the vital organization, and finally to destroy the unkappy patient. But in

of the merce and the mbappy patient. But in MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR is presented—as a phenomena in the materia medic erto unheard of—a stimulant without a reaction.

I well remember, as being considered one of the most skillful physicians in the United States, and bad heard his Cordial very highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous as to its merits until I was so unexpectedly and satisfactority convinced to the contrary. It must be a great consolation to you to think what a vast amount of human misery your Cordial is aleviating. With my warmest wishes for your health, happiness and continued success.

have not in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has in many violent and desperate cases of fected radical cures after patients had been abandoned and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

My office having been in a store where this Cordial was kept for sale for over three years, and my opportunities of judging of its effects somewhat numerous, the varily increasing demand, and that without a single advertisement, tells for itself. I have seen a case of weakness which had resisted all treatment for over five years, both in this place and Philadelphis, and the person a fair candidate for suicida, radically cured with one dozen bottles. He had spent hundreds without relief, and was cured with twenty-four doilars worth of Dr. Morse's Cordial.

Extract of a Letter from Bennington, Dec. 29.

"A very odd kind of providence happened lately in our neighborhood, viz: Mr. Zebolon Stanhope, a farmer, living about five miles N. E. by N. of this township, having trained up a couple of large bears to the plow, and other services, sinped them before his alsel hast week, with twenty achipples of wheat, for the New City. The animals down extremely well for four miles and a half; when, the haiter of the near bear giving way, the farmer set about repairing it; but while he was thus employed, the inhuman brate, selsing him by the right leg, tore it miserably; and both hears, hauling at once, ran away with the sled; so that with the utmost difficulty he got home in four hours on feet.

"Messengers were dispatched to hook for the slod and cargo; and two days being spent in fruitiess search, they were given up for lost. But on the third, at moon, the notan of a carriage near the house was heard, and young Gud Stanbope jumped up to see who was coming; when—behold to his great intonishment, it proved to be the two hears drawing the sled into the barn, with no earthly thing in it, except four large bears and three cubs. The lad, god two men that happened to be then in the house, run simularly, and shutting the barn doort, with my long gan shot them all through a crevice.

"The wheat has since been discovered; but the farmer's leg is expected to calve in a day or two."

Mass, Insank Hospital. Workerer June 1, 1818.

Drak Sig: It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, procured some of your Cordial, which he tells me he has taken two weeks, and that he is entirely curred. He already looks like a new person, who a short time since looked so pale and thin, and was scarcely able to crawl around. I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength and faculties; his case was an extremely bad one. I prescribed the usual medicine used in such cases in the Hospital, but they were of no effect. In the meantime my putient had procured some of your Cordial, which effected a cure I am satisfied no other medicine could have done. I shall ever warmly recommend it whenever an opportunity occurs.
